

1. Define "Faith", and tell why it is important (see Heb. 11:1-6; James 1:2-8; Ro. 3:21-26; Romans 14:22-23)

2. Define "Fellowship" (as a verb):

3. What do you think distinguishes genuine, fruitful fellowship from plain ole general conversation?

4. Read Romans 1:6-17

From verse 12, what do you think the phrase means "mutually encouraged by each other's faith"?

And how do you see it being played out in the church today?

Specifically in your life?

5. Reconsidering question #1 in light of the underlined phrase in #4, what is another reason YOUR faith is important?

6. Hebrews 3:6-19      Meditate on vv. 12-14. Ponder them. Why is fellowship so important?

Describe specifically what you think fellowship may practically look like in these verses? (You may want to consider possible scenarios...)

7. Hebrews 10:19-25

a. Describe what the Holy Spirit is saying to New Testament Believers in these verses:

b. Do you sense He is saying anything more specifically to you?

c. V. 25 uses the word "habit" Why would you think that is so?

d. What are some obstacles in your life that could potentially hinder you fulfilling this command?

8. Encouragement

a. What does it mean to encourage someone?

b. Is it really all that important? Why?

- c. Do you consider this "activity" a responsibility (to do) of yours?
- d. Or do you mainly consider it as a benefit (to receive)?
- e. How do you think the principle of sowing and reaping applies here?
- f. Will you begin TODAY asking the Lord (DAILY) to bring you opportunities to encourage others, knowing this is NO SMALL THING ??
- g. Could you perhaps think of a person to which the Lord wants you to be a continual source encouragement?

9. Read Romans 15:1-13, but especially vv5-6, 13.

- a. Does anything come to mind as you read vv 5-6 and v. 13 ?
- b. What "sticks out to you" from the rest of the text?
- c. Do you realize when scripture "sticks out to you", it is probably the Holy Spirit?
